

PRIVATE TRAVEL ICELAND specialises in tailor made Private and Luxury travel in and around Iceland. Our mission is to create unforgettable experiences that deliver more than what was asked for.

It is our job to understand exactly what you are looking for by using our experience, contacts and insights, to create a holiday that fits your precise requirements. A trip that incorporates the experiences, activities, style of accommodation, pace of travel and the level of luxury that are important to you. YOU are our priority & our aim is to give you the best value for your money.

PRIVATE TRAVEL ICELAND is a showcase of professionals ready to go the extra mile. Having the most experienced luxury travel agents in Iceland in our team we combine experience and hard work to make sure your holiday will exceed your expectations.

The team is extremely organised and can master a tailor-made itinerary within hours. We pride ourselves to have the fastest answering time to make everything as easy as possible. We are really well connected in the Icelandic tourism industry making it easy for us to deliver a top itinerary in record time.

We are an expanding team of 9, with 4 owners – who are:

Jon Olafur Sigurbjornsson – Founder & Head Guide

Styrmir Sigurdsson – Managing Director

Sarah Quigley – Sales & Agency Sales Manager

Tomas Thorsteinsson – Product & Sales Manager

We would like to Thank you for meeting us this week at ILTM, Cannes and hope the information from us will be of great help with future clients and bookings and Iceland itself. And, we look forward to welcoming your clients to our Island and hopefully you one day!
